that this partition had been was made the Superintendent had violated the Law in not notifying District No 14 of the charge.

It was therefore unanimously Resolved, that the present Board
